

Centre for Education Research & Innovation
Second Annual Research Symposium

Date: Thursday, October 7th, 2010
Location: Windermere Manor, London, Ontario

Annual Weston Lecture in Medical Education
“Navigating Discourse: Sea Monsters, Whirlpools and Health Professional Competence”

Objectives:

1. Introduce discourse analysis as a research method in health professions education
2. Consider different discourses that structure thinking about competence
3. Imagine an alternative and more adaptive discourse for the 21st century and

Afternoon Workshop
“Making Sense of Discourse Analysis”

Objectives:

1. Outline various approaches to discourse analysis
2. Explore different uses of discourse analysis
3. Practice one type of discourse analysis

by

Dr. Brian Hodges

Director, Wilson Centre for Research in Education
Professor, Department of Psychiatry, University of Toronto

This event has no commercial support.

Centre for Education Research & Innovation
Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry • The University of Western Ontario
Suite 110, Health Sciences Addition • London, Ontario • N6A 5C1 • Canada
PH: 519-661-2111 ext. 89044 • CERI@schulich.uwo.ca