How does the LHSC Drug and Therapeutic Committee Work and How Does it Impact You?

Objectives:

By the end of this Grand Rounds Presentation, participants should/will be able to:

1. Appreciate the role of the DTC, how to access it, and how it interacts with providers.
2. Understand the recent challenges the DTC has faced.
3. Describe the new formulary definitions and why they were changed.
4. Describe the high cost drug process.

Dr. Ball works clinically as an intensivist in the Critical Care Trauma Center, as a trauma physician with the London Health Sciences Center Trauma Program and as a consultant toxicologist with the LHSC Toxicology Service. He took over as Chair of the LHSC Drug and Therapeutics Committee and Medical Lead for Pharmacy in July, 2023.

Sara Henderson is the Director of Pharmacy Services at London Health Sciences Centre (LHSC). Sara is a current candidate for the Certified Health Executive (CHE) designation. As part of the Director role, Sara serves as the Vice Chair of the Drug and Therapeutics Committee, and is the Director of LHSC's Pharmacy Residency Program.
