Volunteers Wanted

Are you interested in helping create an inclusive community that supports mental health and wellness?

Do you want to be a leader in your community and act as an agent of positive social change?

We are recruiting student volunteers to be champions of mental health and lead community activities that promote mental health education and fun all at the same time!

Apply to become a volunteer today!
For more information and application details contact:
VisAbility.Kenya@gmail.com

Help us make the invisible, visible!