
OBJECTIVES

OB EMERGENCIES II (APH, PPH, BREECH)

- Define placenta previa, placenta accrete and succenturiate lobe.
- Describe 4 signs, symptoms or investigations that can differentiate between placental abruption and placenta previa.
- Define post-partum hemorrhage and list 8 risk factors for it.
- Describe 4 immediate management steps in PPH
- Name 4 different uterotonic drugs used in PPH
- Discuss the types of breech presentation and the incidence with gestational age.
- List risk factors for breech presentation.
- Describe management options for breech position at term including ECV.
- Explain the “Term Breech Trial” and its consequences.