Ruffolo, Hooper & Associates, M.D., P.A.

Consultants in Pathology & Laboratory Medicine

WHO ARE WE?

Ruffolo, Hooper & Associates, M.D., P.A., (RHA) is a physician-owned hospital-based practice providing comprehensive anatomic and clinical pathology services in the Tampa Bay region and at additional locations throughout Florida. We serve hospitals, ambulatory surgery centers, independent laboratories, and other patient care centers. Our Pathologists' Assistants (PA) team is a tight-knit group of outstanding professionals working together with our physicians to deliver an unmatched standard of care to patients and clinicians. In addition, working with residents from the University of South Florida Morsani College of Medicine supports the next generation of pathology professionals.

Whether you are experienced or just starting your career, there's a place for you in our group to learn and grow professionally while having fun in the beautiful Tampa Bay area.
