

Canadian Anesthesiologists' Society

16th Annual

Medical Student Prize

Purpose

To increase Undergraduate Medical Students' awareness of the specialty of Anesthesiology and the role of Anesthesiologists' in modern health care.

Essay

- Write an essay of 1000 – 1500 words, from the topics listed below.
- To be submitted in electronic format (Word; not PDF), to your local Anesthesiology Coordinator (see below), via email.
- Please include your name, university and email address.
- Deadline for Submission: Friday, Feb 26, 2016.

Topics

- a) The Anesthesiologists' role in the modern medical school curriculum.
- b) Anesthesiologists' as leaders in patient safety.
- c) Criteria for admission to medical school.
- d) The contribution of Anesthesiology to research in medicine.
- e) The use of the anesthesia simulator for Anesthesiology teaching: "Is it a good thing?"
- f) The Anesthesiologist as the perioperative physician.
- g) A topic related to the history of Canadian Anesthesiology.
- h) Professionalism in medicine.
- i) Anesthesiology's contribution to Pain Management.
- j) Other topics that are suitable, to be cleared by your local Undergraduate Education Supervisor:

Local Anesthesiology Coordinator

Please forward your essay to Charlotte Sikatori, Department of Anesthesia at Western University on or before Feb 19, 2016
Phone#: ext 75813 Email: charlotte.sikatori@lhsc.on.ca

Prize

- 1st Prize: $1,000 and an invitation to the CAS Annual Meeting in Vancouver (June 24-27, 2016), where your prize will be presented. (+ up to $1K travel stipend)
- 2nd Prize: $500
- 3rd Prize: $250

All Three Prize Winners will receive complimentary CAS 2016 Membership

1st prize essay to be published in ANESTHESIA NEWS, the newsletter of the Canadian Anesthesiologists' Society