

Reporting incidents of discrimination, harassment, gender-based or sexual violence, mistreatment and other unprofessional behaviours

If you have experienced or witnessed an event on or off campus, please follow the steps below to access the appropriate resources.

If concerned for the safety of yourself or others, please contact Emergency Services for your learning environment or call 911.

If not concerned for immediate safety, you may follow one of the options below

Bias, harassment, or discrimination

Gender-based or sexual violence (GBSV)

Violations of the student code of conduct

Other issues with the learning environment

You can file an anonymous or named report through the Human Rights Office.

You can disclose or file a complaint through the Health and Wellness Offices.

You can report violations through the Health and Wellness Offices.

For complex issues, consider opening a student support case through the Health and Wellness Office. Alternatively, you may seek to resolve an issue at the departmental level via the respective Chair(s) or Program Director(s). If further oversight is needed, you can contact the Undergraduate or Graduate Associate Dean(s).

Learn more here

Learn more here

Learn more here

Western

Created by the Biochemistry EDI Committee

For more resources, visit our EDI webpage:
https://www.schulich.uwo.ca/biochem/about_us/equity_diversity_and_inclusion

Last updated: June 30th, 2023

Schulich
MEDICINE & DENTISTRY