BMSc Hons degree with Double Majors:
Major Micro Imm + Major Physiology
For students entering Yr 3 in 2025/26 and onward

11.0 unique courses must be completed for the modular requirements for the Major in Microbiology and Immunology + Major in Physiology

- check the boxes below, making selections from drop-down boxes (if present) and typing in courses if a drop-down box isn't present
- check Access to Courses for constraints on basic medical science courses (priorities, etc.) since having the prerequisite does not assure access to courses.
- Green courses are Admission Requirements and must be completed by the end of Year 2
- Blue courses are included in the Progression Requirements and must be completed by the end of Year 3
- Other courses can be completed in any year, provided the prerequisites are satisfied

NO course can be used in two places below, e.g., Micro Imm 3200B cannot be used in two places below

Full details about the Common Course Policy are found on the BMSc website.

There are 2.0 "common courses": Biochemistry 2280A, Biology 2382A/B and Medical Sciences 4000E. The 1.0 common course with the higher mark, either Medical Sciences 4000E or (Biochem 2280A + Bio 2382A/B), will be double-counted and used toward both Major modules.

Substitute courses: 0.5 substitute course is required for each Major. For the 0.5 substitute course for the Major Physiology, choose one of Biology 2290F/G, Biology/Stats 2244A/B or any basic medical science course numbered 2000 or above (choose the subject and indicate the course number, e.g., Anat Cell Bio 2200A. The substitute course for the Major Micro Imm must be the remaining course from Mic Imm 3200B, 3300B, 3400A (recommended, but not required, to be done in third year).
