

Western SocialScience

Anthropology

Project title: Care Relationships of Adult Disabled and Nondisabled Siblings

Document Title: Flyer

Principal Investigator: Pamela Block, Ph.D.

Western University, Department of Anthropology

Social Science Centre 3425, London, ON, Canada N6A 3K7

Phone: (519) 661-2111 x85077 Email: pblock@uwo.ca

PARTICIPANTS NEEDED FOR THE STUDY ON INDIVIDUALS WITH INTELLECTUAL DISABILITY AND AUTISM AND THEIR NONDISABLED SIBLINGS.

Do you have an adult sibling that is disabled or are you disabled and have a sibling; we want to talk to you!

Centre for Caregiving Excellence, Siblings Canada, and Western University Disability and Medical Anthropologists are aiming to look at the mutual care relationships between adult siblings (disabled and nondisabled).

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

- ◆ Participants must be over the age of 18
- ◆ Has a sibling who is disabled or is disabled and has a sibling
- ◆ Must be able to speak English.

CONTACT FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Email: pblock@uwo.ca

Phone: (519) 661-2111 x85077

