Thursday, April 25, 2019
12:00 — 1:00pm
Auditorium B, University Hospital

When Drugs Don't Work: Device Therapy for Heart Failure

Objectives:

1. Reviewing current issues related to ejection fraction for prognosis in heart failure (HF).

2. Exploring indications and evidence for treatment of mitral regurgitation percutaneously using MitraClip in patients with HF.

3. Examining indications and evidence for newer generation mechanical circulatory support options in patient with HF.

Dr Sabe De is an Assistant Professor of Medicine in the Division of Cardiology at Western University.