

Name of Rotation:	Wound Care - Parkwood
Description of Rotation:	Management of Diabetic/Surgical Wounds/Lymphedema, as well as Minor Surgical Procedure Clinic. In depth look a wound care, multiple facets of various wounds.
Rotation Contact:	Dr. Punkuj Chawla
Description of Clinical Duties:	Hands on Procedural Skills and Wound Management assessment, debridement and dressing of simple and complex wounds as well as common excisional procedures seen by most family physicians. Also opportunities to do ER shifts and hands on procedures in the ER.
Sample Schedule:	Wound/Procedure clinic 3 day/week. 1-2 ER shifts
On-Call Requirements:	none
Description of Setting:	Parkwood Institute and Alexandra Hospital outpatient space and ER
Supervision:	Physician and nursing assistance
Clinical Content:	Hands on procedural skills for common family medicine procedures in excision and suture, various, joint injections, and wound debridement and dressing for complex wound management.
Objectives/Expectations:	Increasing comfort and knowledge on excision, injection of joints as well as wound care management.
Level of Residents Accepted:	PGY1,PGY2, PGY3

Teaching:	Teaching in clinical setting and potentially with teaching students.
Description of Location:	Parkwood Institute - London, Ontario Alexandra Hospital - Ingersoll, Ontario