

Schulich Graduate & Postdoctoral Awards

The Jonathan & Joshua Graduate Scholarship

Mr. Robert McKinnon has generously provided funding for a PhD Scholarship in the area of Mental Health research in the Schulich School of Medicine and Dentistry.

This scholarship will be awarded annually to a full-time PhD graduate student(s) who is specializing in the neuroscience of mental health disorders and/or neurodegenerative disease.

Value: 4 awards valued at $25,000

Criteria: Specialization in the neuroscience of mental health disorders and/or Neurodegenerative Disease.

Eligibility: Full-time Doctoral student registered in a Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry program may apply. Candidates must have at least one year remaining for the completion of graduate program may apply.

Deadline: First Monday in May of each year

Application Procedure: Students may apply online: Online Awards Application

Applications must include a transcript as well. Students can use their student centre copy of grades, and attach them to an email sent to gradstudies@schulich.uwo.ca Please save the PDF with both your last name, and also the award name.

Referees may send in their letters directly to gradstudies@schulich.uwo.ca. 2 reference letters are required.

Adjudication Procedure:

A committee of graduate chairs will be chaired by the Associate Dean Research (Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies). This committee will select the recipients.