Schulich Graduate & Postdoctoral Awards

Drs. Madge and Charles Macklin Fellowship for Teaching & Research

The Drs. Madge and Charles Macklin Fellowship is available to full-time doctoral students in the Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry that recognizes and rewards excellence in teaching and research. This fellowship was established by a bequest from Margaret Macklin Frewen. One fellowships valued at $5600.00 may be awarded each year.

Criteria:
Selection will be based on excellence in teaching and research work. Academic achievement will also be considered, but a candidate's record of teaching and research is of primary importance.

Eligibility:
Full-time Doctoral student registered in a Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry graduate program may apply. Candidates must have at least one year remaining for the completion of their degree to be eligible to apply. Although candidates are welcome to apply for the Nellie Farthing Fellowship or the Drs. Madge and Charles Macklin Fellowship for Publication in addition to this fellowship, candidates can only receive one fellowship in any given year.

Deadline:
First Monday in May each year

Application Procedure:

Graduate Chairs in each program may nominate one candidate. Nominated trainees may now apply online: Online Awards Application.

Nominated trainees must send their most up-to-date transcripts to Janelle: jpritch7@uwo.ca. All documents must be attached and saved using your last name and name of document ie: SMITH_TRANSCRIPT_MACKLIN_T.

Referees (trainees need 2 letters) may send in their letters directly to jpritch7@uwo.ca

Adjudication Procedure: A committee will consist of up to three graduate program Chairs. The committee will be chaired by the Associate Dean, Research (Graduate and Postdoctoral Studies). This committee will select the recipient(s).