

Presents

The Past and Future of Canadian Medicare

A Free Public Lecture and Discussion

Facilitated by David Naylor, University of Toronto

Thursday May 11th, 2017

4:00 pm – 5:45 pm

MaRS Auditorium, 101 College Street West, Toronto, Ontario

Sally Sheard:

History and Policy of Wait List Management in the NHS and What Canada Can Learn From This

Dr. Sheard is Professor of the History of Medicine at the University of Liverpool.

Greg Marchildon:

Key Policy Problems in Canadian Medicare and What History Tells Us about Solutions

Dr. Marchildon is Ontario Research Chair in Health Policy and System Design, Institute of Health Policy, Management and Evaluation, University of Toronto.

This Public Lecture is taking place as part of the AMS 80th Anniversary celebrations. Join our mailing list here for an opportunity to gain full access to the Public Lecture, Gala Dinner and Invitational Symposium: Canadian Medicare 2017: Historical Reflections, Future Directions. Three subscribers will be chosen at random on Monday April 24th, 2017.