A COMMITMENT TO DIVERSITY

Schulich Medicine & Dentistry believes that diversity is a source of strength, which promotes a culture of excellence, innovation, flexibility and adaptability that thrives based on the contributions of all faculty, staff, and students. The School accepts, nurtures, values and celebrates this diversity.

Special consideration is given to applicants who self-identify on their application form that they are from an Indigenous community (five designated seats), Southwestern Ontario, the Canadian Armed Forces, or who have faced barriers on their path to applying to medicine.

Schulich Medicine & Dentistry recognizes the need for increased physicians from the following groups: women, Indigenous communities, rural/remote regions and lower socioeconomic status.

SCHULICH MEDICINE STUDENTS ARE:

- Caring, respectful, and ethical leaders;
- Self-directed, entrepreneurial and collaborative;
- Advocates who are invested in their community and those around the world;
- Role models of initiative, life-long learning and humanism;
- Passionate about delivering health care to their communities.

“Through the patient-focused clinical teaching models and an emphasis on understanding diverse and under-represented populations in the health care system, I was drawn to Schulich Medicine’s humanistic approach to medical education. And through formal academic mentorship programs with physicians, horizontal and vertical mentorship with students, and professional mental health counselors, this Program contains a community of individuals who are relentlessly cheering you on in your growth.
