

If requesting the addition or amendment of an Inter-Institution Affiliation (IIA) Agreement between full accreditation reviews, please include a covering letter providing the rationale for the addition of the IIA (for example, a change in the STR, resources available, or number of residents) along with the signed IIA for Program Completion form.

Royal College of Physicians and Surgeons of Canada
Inter-Institution Affiliation (IIA) Agreement for Program Completion

Definition: This type of inter-institutional affiliation applies when a medical school has sufficient resources to provide most of the required components of a residency program, but lacks the resources to provide one or more essential elements as defined by the discipline's specialty-specific standards.

Name of Program: Pediatric Emergency Medicine

Home School: Western University

Receiving School: University of Toronto

Rotations/Experience required: Toxicology

Specialty-specific requirement(s) (OTR/STR/CTR/SSA): (e.g. OTR 1.5) OTR 2.1.1.24. Toxicology
OTR5.1.14. Toxicological/environmental procedures

Duration: Months: Weeks: Blocks: 1

Number of residents per year (approximately): 0-2

Description of rotation (including major goals and objective of rotation)
(to be completed by the home school)

General Objectives:

1. To gain knowledge in the general principles of toxicology and to develop an approach to the management of the acutely poisoned patient.
2. To become familiar with the signs and symptoms of common and emerging toxins.
3. To develop a high level of comfort with the management of common overdoses and toxins.
4. To develop an understanding the role a Poison Centre plays in the community.
5. To identify major ingestions based on age group.

To fulfill these objectives, the resident will:

1. Attend at the poison centre and participate in telephone consultation of reported poisonings.
2. Participate in teaching activities, both cased based and didactic.
3. Gain further knowledge by consolidating information by reading assigned textbook and literature.
