

Did my patient just hit on me?

Recognizing boundary issues in practice

PGME Academic Half Day

When: September 9th, 2015

1:00pm – 4:00pm

Where: DSB 1002

Come hear Drs. Paul and Northcott discuss how to navigate the murky, grey areas of doctor / patient relationships. Sometimes things are not just black and white!

- Can I hire my patient to put new flooring in my house?
- How do I gently but respectfully respond to patient flirting?
- When is a gift okay?
