

PATHOLOGY AND LABORATORY MEDICINE RESEARCH DAY 2019

Thursday, March 28, 2019

University Hospital, Auditorium A

Keynote Address:

Dr. Anthony Magliocco

Senior Member and Chair,
Department of Anatomic Pathology,
Moffitt Cancer Center, Florida

*Reimagining Pathology in a
Precision Oncology World:
A Vision for the Road Ahead*

The Keynote Address will be given by Dr. Anthony Magliocco at the 2019 Pathology and Laboratory Medicine Research Day. Dr. Magliocco's research focuses on elucidating the molecular mechanisms of cancer progression and the development of drug resistance. In addition, he is developing clinical markers of radiotherapy resistance using cervical cancer as a model system, and developing approaches for improving the quality of cancer pathology laboratories. It is really a pleasure having Dr. Magliocco visit us and deliver the keynote address.
