COURSE EXPECTATIONS:
Western students are expected to follow the Student Code of Conduct. This Code sets out the standards of conduct expected of students and holds individuals responsible for the consequences of their actions. Failure to fulfill these responsibilities may result in the withdrawal of privileges or the imposition of sanctions.

☒ All course materials created by the coordinator(s)/instructor(s) are copyrighted and cannot be distributed or sold.
☒ Recordings are not permitted (audio or video) without explicit permission.
☒ Permitted recordings are not to be distributed.

INTEGRITY PLEDGE:
Academic honesty and integrity are an important part of being a scholar in the Department of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine at Western University. By enrolling in this course, students are obliged to:

☒ fully observe the rules governing exams, tests/quizzes, and assignments regarding resource material, electronic aids, copying, collaborating with others, or engaging in any other behaviour that subverts the purpose of the exam/test/quiz or assignment and the directions of the course instructor.
☒ submit work done specifically for the assignment, and not to borrow work either from other students, or from assignments for other courses.
☒ give full and proper credit to sources and references, and to acknowledge the contributions and ideas of others relevant to academic work.
☒ to complete ‘individual assignments” individually, and neither to accept nor give unauthorized help to others.
☒ to report any observed breaches of academic honesty.
COURSE DESCRIPTION:

This course represents a core learning experience for graduate students performing research in the One Health field of Pathology and Laboratory Medicine graduate programs. Fundamental concepts in One Health will be emphasized, including the history, evolution, and scope of the field, and the foundational pillars of One Health, specifically human health, animal health, and environmental health. Additionally, the role of a One Health approach in informing health policy and integrating One Health into governance systems will be introduced. Students will synthesize and integrate these fundamental concepts during critical evaluations of contemporary One Health studies.

LEARNING/COURSE OBJECTIVES:

Upon completion of this course, students will be able to:

1. discuss the field of One Health, its definition, scope, and how and why it has emerged as an independent field of study
2. identify and discuss the three main pillars of One Health
3. identify and discuss the origins and determinants of health in each of the three main pillars of One Health
4. evaluate the complex biologic connections and interdependence between the three main pillars of One Health
5. identify non-health consequences, including cultural, socioeconomic, and economic, using a One Health approach
6. use specific disease- and environmental examples to describe and discuss the fundamental principles of One Health
7. identify and discuss major health challenges facing society using a One Health approach
8. for a given health problem, identify and discuss the role of key stakeholders using the One Health approach
9. describe challenges and possible solutions to health problems using a One Health approach
10. gain familiarity with the One Health scientific literature and evaluate, integrate, and apply broader scientific literature to a One Health problem.

MISSED WORK AND LATE ASSIGNMENTS:
If a student misses an assignment, a presentation or other course deadline, they will be subject to the penalties outlined in this course syllabus, unless they have made prior arrangements with the course coordinator and instructor.

Missed quizzes or exams will be assigned a mark of 0%, unless accommodation has been requested and alternate arrangement have been made prior to the deadline.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION & STATEMENTS

Statement on Use of Electronic Devices:
Tablets and computers are permitted in the class/learning sections. Students are also permitted to use their own computers when delivering a presentation in class.

For all tests, quizzes, and exams taken in-person, it is the policy of the Schulich School of Medicine & Dentistry that any electronic devices, i.e., cell phones, tablets, cameras, or iPod are strictly prohibited.

Students support:
Students who are in emotional/mental distress should refer to Mental Health@Western for a complete list of options about how to obtain help.

Academic offenses:
Scholastic offences are taken seriously, and students are directed to read the appropriate policy; specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site: https://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_grad.pdf

All required papers and reports may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers and reports submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers/reports subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com (http://www.turnitin.com).

Computer-marked multiple-choice tests and/or exams may be subject to submission for similarity review by software that will check for unusual coincidences in answer patterns that may indicate cheating.

Academic accommodation:
Students seeking accommodation must make timely, formal requests and provide relevant medical or psychological documentation sufficient to allow the University to determine whether they qualify for academic accommodation and what kind of accommodation might be required. Students should consult SAS website for the required documentation and kinds of accommodation (http://www.sdc.uwo.ca/ssd/academic_accommodation/index.html).

Absence for non-medical reasons:
Absences (presentations and assignments) may be permitted for compassionate reasons. However, documentation is required and must be submitted by the student directly to the course coordinator. The coordinator will determine if accommodation is warranted.

Accessibility Statement:
Please contact the course coordinator if you require material in an alternate format or if you require any other arrangements to make this course more accessible to you. You may also wish to contact Student Accessibility Services (SAS), provided by the Student Development Centre (SDC) at Western for specific questions.

Copyright and Audio/Video Recording Statement:
Course material produced by faculty is copyrighted and to reproduce this material for any purposes other than your own educational use contravenes Canadian Copyright Laws. You must always ask permission to record another individual and you should never share or distribute recordings.

Correspondence Statement:
The centrally administered e-mail account provided to students will be considered the individual’s official university e-mail address. It is the responsibility of the account holder to ensure that e-mail received from the University at his/her official university address is attended to in a timely manner.
