CUSEC 2017

November 16th & 17th

Vancouver, BC

Plan to attend the 2017 CUSEC Symposium on November 16 & 17, 2017 in Vancouver, British Columbia. Surgical Teachers, Surgeons, Residents and Students are all welcome!

If you are involved in Undergraduate Surgical Education and/or you are interested in how Surgery should be taught and learned in medical school, then this meeting is for you. It will be friendly, pertinent and interactive.

We'll be sharing our thoughts and experiences on these and other topics:

- CBD- competency by design in undergraduate surgical learning and assessment
- EPAs- entrustable professional activities and their role in undergraduate surgical teaching
- New ideas in undergraduate surgical teaching methods
- Dealing with the university and medical school 'machine'
- Residents as surgical teachers
- Resilience and Mindfulness

Breakfast, lunch, nutrition breaks and the Thursday evening CUSEC dinner are all included in the registration fee. If you have any allergies/meat/vegan preferences, please email us at cusec.ccecp@gmail.com to let us know by August 30th, 2017.

ABSTRACTS/PAPER PRESENTATIONS

Abstracts and paper presentations to be presented at the CUSEC symposium are now being accepted.

Podium and poster presentations on topics pertaining to undergraduate surgical education at this symposium are invited. Residents and medical students are especially welcome to submit a 250 word abstract for consideration in PDF or Word format to cusec.ccecp@gmail.com. Please submit your abstract(s) by September 1st, 2017 and indicate your preference for podium or poster presentation.

There will be awards given out to the top 2 presentations. For more information, please check out the CUSEC website at <https://www.cusec-ccecp.com/speakers-submissions/>.
